Below is audio from an interview I did during FryFest on Friday with former Hawkeye linebacker Larry Station.

Station, who entered the College Football Hall of Fame this past July, was on hand along with other members of Iowa's 1985 Rose Bowl team, reminiscing about that magical season for the Hawkeyes and signing autographs for fans.

He also was signing copies of his book, Larry Station, Jr.: Taking It To The Next Level.

Station is Iowa's all-time leading tackler with 492 during his four-year career.
