

4/23/2011: Iowa player video (Camp Courageous visit)

Senior members of the Iowa football team sign autographs for campers from Camp Courageous on Saturday, April 23, 2011 at Kinnick Stadium in Iowa City, Iowa.

By Brendan Stiles

HawkeyeDrive.com

IOWA CITY, Iowa – The Iowa football program held its annual event of inviting kids from Camp Courageous in Monticello, Iowa down to Kinnick Stadium to spend the afternoon with members of the Hawkeyes' senior class. The campers received autographs from all the players on hand as well as head coach Kirk Ferentz and later got a chance to tour the locker rooms and press box at Kinnick Stadium.

Camp Courageous is a non-profit organization that provides respite care and recreational facility for disabled men, women, and children of all ages.

Below are video interviews featuring four Iowa seniors who took part in Saturday's event – wide receiver Marvin McNutt, defensive tackle Mike Daniels, linebacker Tyler Nielsen, and tight end Brad Herman: