IOWA CITY, Iowa – The Iowa Hawkeyes' 2014 recruiting class consists of 19 players – 18 that were recruited out of high school and one player who transferred from a junior college. Eighteen of the 19 recruits signed National Letters of Intent on Wednesday and Iowa head coach Kirk Ferentz said the last one is expected to become official on Thursday.

This is the official list of recruits sent out by Iowa on Wednesday of those who have signed national letters of intent to play for the Hawkeyes.

(UPDATE: The last addition to the 2014 recruiting class came Thursday as expected from running back Markel Smith. This list is now updated to include him.)
