CHICAGO, Ill. – Following his press conference with the national media during the 2014 Big Ten Media Days on Monday, Iowa head coach Kirk Ferentz spoke to the local press out in a hallway inside the Hilton Chicago. Among the topics discussed were the transfers of quarterback Nic Shimonek, linebacker Laron Taylor and kicker Alden Haffer, a hernia injury that will sideline wide receiver Damond Powell and moving into the newly-renovated football facility during the team's first bye week in October.

Below is video of Ferentz's interaction with the local media Monday in its entirety:
